The Madison Argus, which defauds Mr. Chappell throughout, says that "the vote on Senator Chappell's case flusly came down to a party atfair." A glance at the above record will show how utterly untrue this statement is. On two of the main counts against him the vote stood, yeas 28, nays 6! The Argus boasts, too, that "Sonator Chappell was in his seat this morning." In our judgment, Mr. Chappell owed it to himseif, his constituents and the Senate, to have resigned his "sout" at once.

Washington Matters. Washington, April 6.

The postponement of the vote on the Minnesota bill was the result of the suggestions of Henry Winter Davis' looking towards a general concen tration of the Opposition against the Adminis tration. A Cangus is talked of effect a union of the Republicans and Americans on the subject.
Although the House, by 11 majority, ordered the resolutions proposing the abrogation of the Clayton Bulwer treaty to be engrossed to a taird reading, the vote for setting it aside, by 10 ma-jority, to take up the Minnesota bill, is regarded Aty Mil. & Wat. R. H.—599 bbls flour, 1,140 as a decided expression against the former measure wheat, 267 has potatoes, 1,180 hs hides, 1,200 hs ure. This motion was made by Mr. Sickles—a member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, who is against the resolution, which is now on the Speaker's table, and difficult to reach, and may be regarded as killed by indirection. The resolution, it is said, was reported without consultation with the President since 1778, when the U.S. abrogated the treaty with France.

The House Committee on elections were en. gaged on the Ohio contested election case. Messrs. Lamar, Stevenson, Phillips and Boyce, voted-that Mr. Vallandigham was entitled to the soat, and Messrs. Gilmer, Wilson, Clark of Conni, and Washburne of Me., voted in favor of Mr.

and Washburne of Me., voted in favor of Mr. Campbell retaining his seat.

Mr. Harris of Ill., voted to vacate the seat and refer the quastion back to the people. Three reports will accordingly be made on Thursday.

Among the confirmations to day by the Senate is that of Judge Loring to supply the vacancy in the Gourt of Chaims, occasioned by the death of Chabies. By general consent the vote on the Senate bill for the admission of Oregon, will be taken on Saturday.

House.—Mr. Clingman said he had the honor to receive a commission from the Governor of N. C., to fill a position in the Senate. He had written him a letter of resignation of his seat, as a member of the House, to take effect to-day. In severing his connection with goodlemen kers, he begged leave to remark that during a service of some idozen years, he may have given offence either by objecting to business out of order, or by words in debate, but in this he was actuated by no feelings of personal unkindness, but was governed by a sense of public duty. He parted with his associates here in friendship, and with nany regrets.

Beath of an M. C. NEW YORK, May 7. Charles Fenton Mercer, late Member of Congress from Virginia, Idied: near Alexandria on Tuesday last.

From Forney's Philadelphia Press.

What Congress Decided on Friday Las The action of the Congress of the United State on Friday last, decided the following propositions and contradictions. Inasmuch as this action is not a settlement, but a wicked reopening of that which honest legislation would have forever tranquilized, we desire the reader to preserve and remember these facts: I. That although the people of Kansas have repeatedly rejected the Lecompton Constitution with all its protections to Slavery, they must take that Constitution now, or wait till they have a population of 93,000 or 120,000.

II. That the people can have no vote upon this Lecompton Constitution under the English bill, as lately, most positively, and distinctly shown by Senators Douglas and Green, in the Senate, and by Mr. Stephens in the House.

III. But, in order to bribe them to take it, some four million of seres of land are offered. some four million of acres of land are offered to them, which if they accept, they go into the Union with Lecompton, and which if they re-ject they remain out an indefinite period of

IV. If they take Lecompton with the land Iv. If they take Lecompton with the land bribe, which is a Slave Constitution, eimply and wholly, they enter the Union with 40,000 of a population; if they refuse it, they will remain in a territorial condition under pro-slavery mangement for years to come. V. That the commission appointed to hold the election in Kansas, when the land ordinance (not the constitution) is submitted, has been constituted by the English bill to consist of a majority of pro-slavery men, who will of course count only to suit themselves; the House bill made the commission stand two and two. YI. That the clause so highly favored by the Lecomptonites, that the people of Kansas should alter the Constitution at any time outside of its forms, has been carefully excluded by the En-glish legerdemain. VII. That all the Southern men say there, is no submission of the Costitution to the people of Kansas, while their partizans from the North

THE PRESIDENT COMING WEST .-- We have heard from undoubted authority that during the long recess of Congress, the President contem-plates making a tour to the West. His first

The early adjournment of Congress, 7th of June, will give ample opportunity to not only our Chief Executive, but the Scoretaries, heads of Departments and members of Congress generally to visit this Western country now becoming in extent, wealth and population the wonder of the world. A private letter from Senator Toombe, assures us that he shall visit Oleveland during the recess, and our readers are already informed of the great projected Buffalo Hunt, which is to come off the coming session in the Red River and Pembinacountry, to be participated in by the Torkish country, to be participated in by the Torkish Pacha, Lord Napier and several foreign grandees resident in this country.—Cleveland Pla

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 8.

Disgusted with "Heform," It is clear that the News has made up its mind this city, shall continue to insist on "Reform." | ular desire;" ham, that defied for toughness soic The News came to grief early in the season, because the People demanded and obtained certain | roust beans and dirty water. amondments to our City Charter, of which the Tax-Enters decidedly disapproved. The Charter Election, which completely upset the Tax-Enters' apple-wart, was la source of fresh annoyance to of his legs at the Mussusoit House, and forced the News. The recent official statement of the by keepers on board the care, on route to the Mayor, showing into what depths of debt the State Lunatic Asylum. He addressed the pecwaste, mis-management and corruption of our late City Rulers have plunged Milwaukce, gave audadditional pang to the commiserating News. And now its troubles have reached their climax, in the steps taken by the Board of Councillois, on Wednesday evening, to pay the debts and restore the credit of the city. The News objects to Mayor Parattes being authorized to proceed to New York, to negotiate with a view to restore and preserve the city eredit. It objects to the proposed Issue of $100. 000 of City Bonds to be used by the Mayor for that purpose. And it sharply criticises " the action of the Mayor's friends in the Common Council" on this subject. It was all right, in the judgment of the News, for Mayor Cross to go to New York and sell city bonds at 55 cents on the dollar, but it would be all wrong for Mayor Pass. riss to go there and dispose of our bonds of par -for the Charter Amendments expressly forbid their being rold at anything less than their face

It is unnecessary to answer, and hardly necessary to notice, the cynical objections of the News. The public, however, in view of the facts that Mr. Haberr introduced and urged the adoption of the measures referred to, and that they passed the Board of Councillors (which the News has assured as is so soundly "Democratic") by an almost unanimous vote, will be not a latte amazed at the cool effectory of the News in charging the whole responsibility for this action upon "the Mayore friends!"

"Popular Sovergiosty,"-The supporters ( the Administration, who, previous to the invention of the Locompton iniquity, were ardent advocates of "popular sovereignty"-Ibink Kaussis ought not to be admitted into the Union until she contains a requisite population for a Reprosoutative, unless she will accept the Lecompto Constitution with perpetual slavery. They say in substance, that Kensas has a right to admission now, if she will come in as a slave State, bu lither people choose to adopt a free Constitution, then she may knock at the door for admission but it will be closed against her; and she is t be thus debarred of a membership in the Unter because her people, will not, at the bidding of the Administration, incorporate into their ecganic laws, the curse of slavery. This is their logic, and this is the latest version of "popular govereignty."

THE GRAND THUNE ROAD.-This work is no finished from Portland, Me., to Stratford, Canada, a distance of 714 miles. The Portland Argul says: We learn that the Directors of the Grand Trunk Railroad, being unable to effect any ful arrangement with the Great Western Railroad of Canada, have made arrangements to extend their line from Port Huron, opposite Samis, to Detroit, a distance of about 55 miles. To effec this object they have obtained possession of charter, granted to a company for building a road on that line, and have also secured the lands in Detroit necessary for the depot and other build-

It is calculated that this line will be built and be ready to sporate upon at the time the route an express office (Mr. B.) and one about to visit is completed from Stratford to Sarala-in the fall Mexico, after passing months here, (Mr. T. F.)of 1859. There are 300 laborers at work now St. Louis has increased wonderfully in the past be completed at the same time.

THE ELECTION IN PHILADELPHIA. - Accounting for a defeat is among the least agreeable and most difficult duties of a political editor. We are disposed, therefore, to make every allowance for the lame apology which the News, of yesterday morning, offers for the mortifying and overhelming rout of the Buchanan Demouracy in the City of Philadelphia. We are even willing to concode that localiquestions did enter into the canvass and that "National politics were involved only incidentally." But they were sufficiently "involved" to give point and significance to the result, which is a terrible re-

A Trip to St. Louis.

Sr. Louis, May 5th, 1868. DEAR GENERAL: - Agreeably to my promise I sit down to scribble a letter to you, giving my observations on St. Louis, as the great emport um of the West. I left Chicago by the Illinois Central Railroad, connecting at Mattoun with the Terre Haute R. R., reaching St. Louis in 173

The night travel was pleasant enough, having a pear which allowed the gentlemanly propriating to me a saloon, which is a fine room partitioned off from the car, where you can rest at full length on a comfortably cushioned couch. He said four other cases depended on the one trial by agreement, and he proceeded to show how he "licked him clean out of Court," It was " his first appearance on that stage," and he examined his witnesses and cross examined his adversary's. I thus, says he, for a beginning, "beat him in five cases, which was ronderful success for an amateur!"

We reached St. Louis at 3 P. M. on Friday-

The "Planter's House" was crammed with travellers, a good few being officers who are colocting here to proceed to Utah to punish Brigham Young, and fratornize with the fairer parts of creation not yet "scaled." General Scolley recognized your humble servant, and made him partake of an excellent dinner-a meal which would have tempted the greatest gourmand,-Having a relative in this city, I was obliged to Having a relative in this city, I was obliged to take my home with him, and thus had but little opportunity of menting many old faces; yet no loss than three crossed my path who were from under the Ravere House, at which Jumpertz less than three crossed my path who were from Milwaukes, all employed and carning honest livliboods. ## THE DAILY SENTINGL contains the following:

DIRECT TRADE BEIWEEN TORONTO AND HALI-FAX, &c .- The Toronto Globe, of a late date contains the following:

An event of an interesting nature occurred during the week in the opening up of (a new and we hope successful trade. We refer to the salpment of produce direct to Glasgow and also to Haliax. On Tuesday, the schooner Aliance, Capt. Sidney Hamilton, cleared with a full load of flour, wheat, peas, &c., for Halifax, on account of William Ross & Co., of this city, who has chartered this vessel for the round trip, with the intention of bringing back a cargo of sugar. It is expected that the cound trip will be made in six we.ks. Too charter was made at $3,000—The Indian Queen, a first class vessel, is now also loading at this port for Glasgow, for which place she is expected to clear during the week. Her cargo, which is nourly all congaged, will be composed of flour, wheat, &c., and will be shipped on account of W. Ross & Uo., Gooderham, Worts and Wilmott, and W. P. Howland, Esq. The rotts of feel; the are equal to $1,05 per barral for flour, and 270 per bus. for wheat. Should there be not a sufficient amount of freight offsering here, the cargo will be completed at Meutrea, The Indian Queen was built last year by Mr McKen at Coldwater, Lake Huron, and is owned by J. C. Fitch, Esq., of this city. She is a first-class vessel, of capacity for 20,000 bushels of wheat. It is the intention of the owner to sell her at Glasgow, should there be a mirkee. She is to go home under the command of Capt. Hudson of this city, an Intelligent and able seaman, who we are sure will make every effort to have son of this city, an intelligent and abic son of this city, an intempert and some seamen, who we are sure will make every effort to have his adopted country appear well in his native land. We wish the enterprise all the success it merits and hope it will be but the commencement of a flourishing trade.

The Student Affair at Ann Arbor.
Ann Anson, Mich., May 3, 1868.
Mr. George W. Brazle has until recently been a student of the University, and has been anxious to become a member of some of the various secret societies connected with the college. A bend of students exceeded a plan of giving him a mack initiation into a sham society, which was to come off on Friday of last week. Beer and whisky were provided for the occasion.—
The time arrived, and nine students and himself met at the study room of a part of the compell met at the study room of a part of the compell met at the study room of a part of the compell met at the study room of a part of the college. The time arrived, and nine students and himself met at the study room of a part of the company. The ceremony was performed, and all who chose partock of the liquors, and he very freely of both the beer and the whisky. He finally became very much intoxicated, and sunk down upon the floor. The rest of the company seeing that he was very drunk sought to sober down upon the floor. The rest of the company seeing that he was very drunk sought to sober him. They carried him out of doors, eat him on a wheelbarrow, and with a student on either side to hold him upright, a third one wheeled him out in the rear of the building, to give him the benefit of the pure sir. Water was brought in a pail, and his face and temples were bathed, for the purpose of soberlug him. It did not accomplish the desired result. He was taken back and carried to us adjoining room, and made as the purpose of successful. He was taken back and carried to an adjoining room, and made as comfortable as possible with some bud clothing. His vomiting precluded the idea of putting him in a bud. It was becoming late, and the company dispersed. But those who roomed in the next room attended to him at intervals during the night. The moreing came and he was still drank, but it was thought that he would wake up soon, and would have slopt off his intoxication. The students apprehending no danger whatever, but thinging he would soon come out of his dranken sloop, wout to the collage as usual about 9 o'clock. When they returned about 11 o'clock the young man was dying. A physician was harriedly reat for, but as it was soone distance to his house, and some time before he arrived, the young man was dead when fore he arrived, the young man was dead when
